This shell jacket is designed with a focus on functionality and comfort. It is made of Ripstop with mechanical stretch for increased mobility. The jacket is both water and windproof and has taped seams for extra protection. For increased comfort, the jacket has a soft and wind-protective inner collar. The practical and detachable hood makes the jacket highly usable in many different work situations. The jacket also features a concealed zipper at the front with a narrow placket closure that protects against scratches. The many practical pockets provide secure storage, including a spacious chest pocket and two side pockets with zippers, as well as a practical inner pocket with a velcro closure. A D-ring in the right side pocket makes it easy to attach items such as an ID card. To ensure a perfect fit, the jacket has elastic and velcro adjustments at the bottom of the sleeves, allowing for
