This work jacket for ladies is designed to combine functionality, durability, and comfort, making it ideal for demanding work conditions. It is made of Ripstop fabric with 2-way stretch, ensuring both flexibility and abrasion resistance. The concealed zipper at the front and a narrow placket protect against scratches. The jacket has many practical pockets such as a spacious chest pocket with a zipper and two side pockets, also with zipper closure for secure storage. To ensure an optimal fit, the jacket has elastic and Velcro adjustments at the sleeve openings, allowing for individual customization. Reflective print on both the sleeves and back increases visibility. The ENGEL EXTENDed back piece provides extra protection for the lower back, which is an advantage in cold or windy environments. A D-ring in the right pocket makes it easy to attach an ID card. The jacket has ample space for c
