This softshell jacket for ladies is designed to combine functionality and comfort, making it ideal for an active workday. The jacket is made of a lightweight and stretchable material that provides increased mobility. For added comfort, the jacket has a soft and wind-protective inner collar. The jacket features a practical front zipper and several spacious pockets, including a chest pocket, two side pockets, and an inner chest pocket—all with zippers. The sleeves have elastic for a snug and comfortable fit, while the velcro adjustment at the bottom of the sleeves makes it easy to adjust the jacket. For further customization, the jacket has a drawstring at the bottom. Reflective prints on both the sleeves and back increase visibility. The jacket also offers ample space for company branding.
