ENGEL's sweat-wicking hi-vis T-shirt is ideal for those who need to be visible and work in hot environments. The T-shirt is available in different fluorescent colours and has several printed reflectors for optimal visibility, regardless of the weather. This t-shirt meets the requirements for clothing class 2. The soft, lightweight material easily absorbs sweat and has temperature-regulating properties, making the T-shirt ideal for the hottest days, when comfort is key.

- Printed reflectors for increased visibility and comfort
- Breathable, lightweight fabric
- Sweat-absorbing fabric
- Temperature regulating
- Viscose (bamboo) on the inside
